Terms & Conditions

Are applicable to everyone attending this conference whether residential or non-residential

Dress code: Smart casual is advised

Every effort will be made to provide the programme of events as described. In the event of a speaker's unavoidable withdrawal the Conference Director will arrange for an appropriate alternative.

Mailings: Details of the conference are outlined in the conference & events programme on the website - a final copy of this along with speaker biographies will be issued at the start of the conference.

Booking deposit: £150.00 per person non refundable and non transferable deposit is required to secure your reservation. Deposits are only applicable to those attending the duration of the conference. Those attending on a daily basis will be asked to prepay at the time of booking.

Final payment: is required by the 31st April 2014.If you wish to prepay in full at the time of booking please contact Peter Chubb on peter.chubb@weetwood.co.uk or 0113 388 5707. Those attending on a daily basis will pre-pay at the time of booking.

Cancellation

- Cancellations received in writing to Weetwood Hall before 31st May 2014, the organisers will retain 50% of the full payment.

- Cancellations received after the 31st May 2014, the organisers will retain the full payment.

Insurance: It is recommended that travel insurance is taken out by each person attending.

Smoking: Is not permitted at Weetwood Hall; there are two designated external shelters if such a facility is required.

Environment & sustainability: Anyone wishing to view Weetwood Hall's commitment to the environment, sustainability and corporate social responsibility may view the details available on www.weetwood.co.uk

Gratuities are entirely at the discretion of the customer. Service charge is not added to the account.

Force majeure: Weetwood Hall will not be liable for non-performance of any obligation under this contract arising out of circumstances beyond its control.

Data protection: Weetwood Hall will comply with its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 in relation to personal data which it controls.

VAT is calculated at 20%. If government increases this standard tax rate Weetwood Hall reserves the right to pass this cost on accordingly.

Copyright © 2012 Weetwood Hall Limited. All rights reserved