

YORKSHIRE'S

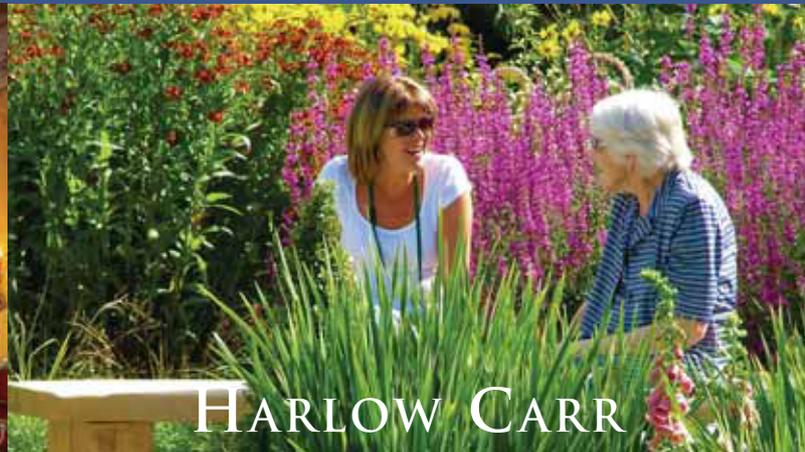

famous stately home Harewood House and the Royal Horticultural Society's award winning Harlow Carr Gardens come together to offer you and your group a great day out.

For those with a passion for plants, in formal and informal settings and a love of the very best in art, fine furniture and interior decoration this is a perfect combination.

Situated only 9 miles and 20 minutes travel apart both attractions can be visited in a day's outing or if you are staying for several days in Yorkshire you may prefer to visit them on different days.

HAREWOOD HOUSE

HARLOW CARR

HAREWOOD HOUSE

One of England's great Treasure Houses and home to the Queen's cousin the Earl of Harewood the house contains some of the country's finest Robert Adam interiors and Thomas Chippendale furniture with outstanding collections of art, sculpture and porcelain.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- Harewood's diverse gardens are beautiful at all times of the year
- The Victorian Italianate Parterre - intricate flower beds, colourful herbaceous borders and magnificent views over "Capability" Brown landscapes
- The Archery Border - a collection of subtropical plants, at their best in mid to late summer.
- The West Garden - ornamental trees and shrubs, at their most colourful in spring and autumn
- The Woodland Garden - an area of old oaks, beeches, yews and sweet chestnuts
- The Himalayan Garden - full of plants from this mountainous region with spectacular waterfall and Buddhist stupa
- The Walled Garden - with its wide range of common and exotic fruit and vegetables reminiscent of those grown in its Victorian heyday

ALSO AVAILABLE

- Private guided tours of House and Gardens
- Complimentary familiarisation visits
- Free entry for organiser and coach driver
- Meal voucher for coach driver
- Dedicated coach parking

HARLOW CARR GARDENS

One of Yorkshire's most relaxing and surprising gardens. Pick up the latest tips and techniques for your own garden from the country's leading gardening charity, the Royal Horticultural Society.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- Find inspiration from 200 years of gardening in Gardens through Time. 7 gardens reflect the fashions and techniques used from the regency period to the present day.
- Our new Alpine House holds the largest RHS collection of Alpines with a selection of over 2000 plants from the Harlow Carr collection.
- Take in a relaxing stroll along one of the country's longest Streamside Gardens
- Pick up practical ideas from the abundant Kitchen Garden
- Sit, relax and take glorious deep breaths in the beautiful Scented Garden.
- Enjoy woodland walks, garden sculpture, wildflower meadows, dramatic ornamental grasses, herbaceous borders and seasonal colours throughout the year

ALSO AVAILABLE

- Guided Tours of the Garden (£2 per person)
- Complimentary familiarisation visits
- Free entry for organiser and coach driver
- Meal voucher for coach driver
- Dedicated coach parking